Benefice news

Christingle Services

The first of our Christingle services in the Benefice take place this Sunday. They are all particularly suitable for families and children, but are also an opportunity for all of us to support the vital work that the Children's Society does for so many lost, abused and vulnerable children and young people across our own country and beyond. At each service there will be the chance to donate to this life-saving work, bringing the light of Christ into the life of a hurting or frightened youngster.

Sunday 27th November 10am Church Fenton

Sunday 27th November 3.30pm Tadcaster

Sunday 4th December 10am Newton Kyme

Sunday 11th December 6pm Ulleskelf Village Hall

New Pyjamas and Outfits

We will be collecting brand new pyjamas and outfits to be given away to families in the local area who cannot afford to buy new clothes, in time for them to be gifted for Christmas.

We ask that you bring them to St Mary's Church, Tadcaster on Sunday 27th November, at any time during the day.

There is no need to wrap the clothes – the parents are given the means to do this themselves.

St Mary's Tadcaster news

Mince pies

We would like to serve mince pies at Adam's concert on 3rd December. If you could make some pies, buy and donate a packet, or donate financially towards the purchase of a packet, we would be very grateful. Please let Celia have any donations.

Decorating church

St Mary's will be decorated for Christmas on Friday 16th December, in readiness for the Carol Service that weekend. BUT we need people to do the decorating! Could you take responsibility for doing a flower arrangement for one small area of the church? Or perhaps a few of you would like to get together to do it?

Ideally, we would like the following areas decorated – but you might have another idea as well - the choir stalls, on top of the font, pulpit, windowsills, ivy around the candle holders....

If you would like to be involved please let Celia know. Get your creative juices flowing!!

And if you are able to provide any greenery – especially ivy – please bring it to church on Thursday 15th December or before 9.30am on Friday 16th.

Life Events

Please remember the family and friends of Annie Carter whose funeral will be held at St Mary's this week.
